“...The Rockies ride was spectacular. The scenery, the camaraderie, the journey, the memories. Canada has many epic rides which is why I am now heading east to ride the Cabot Trail!”

— CURT HARNETT

Where the mountains meet the sea, you'll find iconic views, hiking trails, colourful fishing villages, and secluded beaches accessible only by kayak and sheer will.

Rising from the sea and clinging to mountains, the Cabot Trail is a winding mix of roadway, paths, stairs, and stunning beauty that takes you from unreal ocean vistas to quaint villages. If you've got a few days, we have a few hundred things to see and do.

Alexander Graham Bell once said: "I have travelled around the globe. I have seen the Canadian and American Rockies, the Andes, the Alps and the Highlands of Scotland, but for simple beauty, Cape Breton outrivals them all."

Cape Breton Island is rated the #1 Island to visit in continental North America by Travel & Leisure Magazine.

The Cabot Trail is considered one of the world's most scenic destinations, with stunning ocean vistas, old-growth forests, prehistoric rock scarred by glaciers, and the mysterious Cape Breton Highlands.

Cycle along ancient coastlines. Fresh local seafood. Toe-tapping ceilidhs. Land-loving activities and seafaring adventures—all waiting to be discovered.
