Prepare to fall under the spell of Prague, the 'City of a Hundred Spires,' where Gothic towers and Baroque domes rise above a labyrinth of medieval cobblestone streets in the beating Bohemian heart of Europe. Your sanctuary for seven nights is the Alchemist Grand Hotel & Spa, an opulent 16th-century baroque masterpiece overlooking the Schönbornský Palace and just steps from Prague Castle. Uniformed doormen, fresh flowers throughout, and champagne before you've even reached your room - this isn't a hotel stay, it's a coronation.

With Steven Page of Barenaked Ladies, Geoffrey Kelly of Spirit of the West, Craig Northey of the Odds, Chris Murphy of Sloan, Moe Berg of The Pursuit of Happiness, and cellist Kevin Fox all joining this exclusive journey - performing together and in surprise solo sets - the nights in Prague Hall will be unlike anything you've heard.

Beyond the hotel, the Bohemian countryside unfolds in canyons, dramatic castles, and ancient forests, explored on foot, by bike, or by kayak down the Vltava. A robust hiking program with expert local guides threads through the region's wild beauty, while history tours through Prague's medieval streets and centuries of Bohemian lore bring the city's legends to life.

The city's finest tables welcome you, with Canada's National Culinary Advisor, Chris Johns, leading the culinary journey and revealing Prague's celebrated food scene through Michelin ranked tastings, cutting-edge gastronomy, and classic Bohemian specialties - schnitzel two ways, dumplings three ways, and a Royal Czech open-fire feast of grilled sausages, roast chicken, and brined pork shoulder. Toast it all with local wine, brown and blonde Czech beer, and a proper Bohemian absinthe tasting.

This is Prague at its most magical - a week of Bohemian rhapsody, culinary wonder, and music that will echo long after you've left!
